

Charles E. Morrison

Charles E. Morrison is a “distinguished senior fellow” at the East-West Center after serving there as president for 18.5 years. He has a Ph.D. from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, where he also once taught Southeast Asian international relations. He has worked as a legislative aide to the late Senator William V. Roth, Jr. and was long associated with the Japan Center for International Exchange. He has written on Southeast Asia, U.S. foreign policy, international trade issues, APEC, and other topics relating to U.S.-Asia-Pacific relations. Dr. Morrison initiated numerous activities at the East-West Center. He also served for several years as the international chair or co-chair of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council.