

PCI News

+ PCI Newsletter

Print this page

News

The PCI annual Building Bridges Award dinner will be held Thursday, February 24, at the InterContinental Hotel. US Ambassador to South Korea Kathleen Stephens will receive the 2011 "Building Bridges Award" at the dinner and will make remarks. Tickets may be obtained by calling Jackie Lee at 818-337-1611.

Upcoming Events: February 24, 2011: The annual PCI Dinner will take place at the InterContinental Hotel in Century City. The Honorable Kathleen Stephens, U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Korea, will receive PCI's annual "Building Bridges" award and will address the dinner. Reception at 6:00pm, dinner at 7:00pm. For tickets please contact Jackie Lee at 818-337-1611.

PCI in the Media PCI Board Members, Founders and Fellows often contribute to the media. Below are recent written contributions of some of our partners. The opinions expressed are solely those of the individuals involved and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Pacific Century Institute.

U.S. Policy toward North Korea: The impact of united assumptions

Japan Reacts to North Korea's Shelling of South Korea's Yeonpyeong Island

Conversations with Mahathir Mohamad

Is the Korean Peninsula on the Brink of War? An Interview with Chung-in Moon

2011, It is time for a 'Change in Thinking' in Our Rough-And-Ready China Policy. By Moon Chung-in

2010, What to do about North Korea. By Donald P. Gregg

2010, Is China's Post-Crisis Growth Sustainable?. By William H. Overholt

2010, Entrepreneurs, Jobs and Asia By Spencer H. Kim

2010, Masters of Misunderstanding Masters of Mistiming. By Spencer H. Kim

2010, Sympathy for the Devil. By Spencer H. Kim